GENERAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNMENT.

THE PRACTICAL, EVERY-DAY APPLICATION OF CHRISTIANITY perhaps well describes the programme outlined sixty-two years ago by the little band of young men who founded the Boston Young Men's Christian Union,—a programme comprehending the possibilities of mutual helpfulness and wholesome comradeship, emphasizing the extension of a helping hand and cordial welcome to the young man coming to the city as a stranger, and all the while recognizing the full value of a true religious background and foundation. This programme furnishes inspiration for the Union's present efforts to "help young men to help themselves."

TO GUIDE AND ASSIST. It is the firm belief of the Board of Government that it is the institution's duty, not so much to do for young men as to provide opportunity and to guide and assist them to do for themselves. With this end particularly in view, a special effort has been made to bring together in small groups those having some interest in common and to assist these various groups in the accomplishment of their particular aims and desires. Constant effort has been made to co-operate with these young people in working out their various problems, to instruct the many classes how to learn, to advise the various clubs how to direct their special efforts, to encourage and assist the different groups in the enjoyment of wholesome pleasure and recreation, rather than to plan and carry out for them in every detail these varying activities. A programme of this sort has the added advantage, it is believed, of a perhaps somewhat indirect but none the less valuable lesson in individual responsibility for the conduct of affairs, which must necessarily prove a distinct contribution to a general training for every-day business, and, indeed, for citizenship.

In the carrying out of this programme there is needed, not only the financial support of business men and interested friends, but also—what is of equal importance—the more personal contribution of co-operating interest and helpful leadership in the many channels to which these groups are attracted by varying tastes and ambitions. Unusual opportunity for service is presented: to the young man interested to do something for his church, to the student,—particularly of the Divinity School, or especially interested in economic or social problems,—to the social worker, or the civic improvement enthusiast. Through the many activities may be found a common ground and community of interest, by which valuable experience may be obtained, as well as valuable service given.

A MEMBERSHIP OF 5,289; a daily attendance varying from 1,500 to 2,000; a list of 1,335 students in evening classes; a gymnasium membership of 1,146, with an average daily attendance of 400; 1,915 children given vacations through "The Country Week"; the story of the activities and accomplishments of the various minor groups and special forms of social service; the Camera Club; the Camping Club; the Bowling League; the Orchestral Club; the Debating Club; the Salesmanship Club,—these and other activities, described in detail in the special committee reports to follow, all testify to increasing interest and accomplishment.

More and more, as we attempt to perfect the various lines of endeavor, do we become aware of overlapping in the work of the city's many social activities, and the Board has during the past year redoubled its efforts in the direction of closer co-operation with other agencies. Effort is made to avoid duplication, even to the extent of dropping entirely any line of endeavor where it is found that the work can better be done in another organization. The co-operation of the many settlement houses, boys' clubs, and similar organizations, as well as of the public schools and many educational institutions in and about the city, has been particularly invited.

CO-OPERATION OF THE CHURCH. Definite and intimate co-operation of the various churches has been sought. Effort also has been made to draw to the attention of our members special activities in the different churches. Young people's societies of the churches have attended by special invitation, and have assisted in the Sunday afternoon receptions of the President and Mrs. Locke. The Tremont Temple Brotherhood has been accommodated with the facilities of our Gymnasium on certain days of the week. Our physical department has joined heartily in the efforts of the Municipal Athletic Association, particularly in its Saturday afternoon walks, several of which have been under the direction of our Physical Director, Professor Hebbert. Groups of our gymnasium members have participated in various athletic programmes of individual societies or more general public demonstrations.

THE CO-OPERATION OF BUSINESS MEN has been sought, notably in connection with the conduct of our Class in Business Methods and Salesmanship, where the lectures given and the pictures of business-doing presented have been under their immediate direction. The splendid service so far rendered only points the way to greater possibilities, which it is our conviction may be made to mean, not only a helpful aid to the young men, but also a distinct benefit to the business men, through the more valuable service returned by employees who profit by the opportunities easily provided through closer co-operation of employers with the Union.

LITTLE GROUPS. Throughout the year emphasis has been placed upon the opportunity afforded by the Union for young men to associate themselves in little groups for the accomplishment of particular aims, in which they have a common interest. The Board would suggest to the business man the opportunity afforded for groups of his employees, or groups made up of employees from firms in the same line of trade, having a common interest, to organize, and, seeking the Union's co-operation and assistance, to accomplish their particular desire at an expense which would be impossible without such assistance; and at the same time, by their connection with the institution, to give to it added strength and power.

STATEMENT BY THE TRUSTEES OF THE PERMANENT FUND.

Substantial additions to the Permanent Fund have been received during the year, appreciative acknowledgment of which is here recorded. Contribution to this fund, of gifts or legacies, insures a continuation of the donor's interest and aids in establishing the permanency of the Union's usefulness. The value to the institution of this assurance of certain and continuing financial support cannot be overestimated, and the Trustees feel justified in calling particular attention to this opportunity for a permanent contribution to the development of young men,—a work which has been carried on by the Union with unvarying success for more than sixty years.

In addition to the care of all bequests and special donations, which are turned over to them as received, the Trustees are charged with the custody of the Union Building and all real estate.

The following legacies and special donations have been received during the year:—

Rebecca A. Greene (additional) . . . . .	$90.77
A. A. Pope . . . . .	851.25
Gift "A Friend" . . . . .	1,000.00
Cyrus Lothrop . . . . .	5,000.00
Charles F. Peirce . . . . .	483.87
Frederick Bancroft . . . . .	106.00

A full list of securities in which the Permanent Fund is invested will be found in the Appendix.

REPORTS OF THE COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNMENT.

FINANCE.

The past year's experience gives renewed evidence of the soundness of the Union's general policy of requiring that the cost of the many and varying interests should be met by special fees and dues paid by the participating members, in so far as they can be consistently expected to bear the burden. This releases, for the general expense of upkeep and administration, more of the income from endowment and the usual annual contributions, and provides more liberally for extension of our work in the many desirable and valuable lines which are constantly suggesting themselves.

THE GENEROSITY of friends whose legacies have steadily added to our endowment fund, supplemented by liberal annual contributions, makes possible, as is shown in the story of the year's work, the accomplishment of much. But the field of opportunity which opens itself to us is so broad that we bespeak an increase in annual contributions which will enable us to undertake new activities, as well as to improve the work on lines already established. We would especially invite contributions from increasing numbers, even in small sums, and particularly to be desired are contributions from friends who find it possible to accompany their subscription with something of personal service. Let the clerk, the book-keeper, the salesman, give according to his means, including in the gift his own membership and that of a comrade or two, and, above all, putting something of himself into the gift by taking a live interest in our affairs and "lending a hand" to push them along.

DONATIONS SHOULD BE SENT to Frank L. Locke, President, Boston Young Men's Christian Union, 48 Boylston Street, for which prompt acknowledgment will be made.

LECTURES, CLASSES, AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

EVENING CLASSES. The most important and valuable work that this Committee supervises is the system of educational training by means of the evening school, an important factor in the intellectual and economic development of the young man to-day. Capable and efficient teachers in the various classes lead and inspire him to increased educational preparation for advancement in business and self-dependence. When he is compelled by circumstances or from choice to leave the public school, and enter business, the Union through its evening classes stands ready to give him an opportunity to help himself. The fees are small and yet enough to make him feel that he is in a measure paying his own way. In general, the Union provides room, heat, light, and opportunity, while the students' fees provide in major part for the instruction.

The Superintendent of Classes, Harrison M. Duffill, makes the following report:—

“THE FORTY-FOURTH SEASON of evening educational classes was introduced on September 3, 1912, by the class preparing for the civil service. This was followed on October 7 by the regular opening.”

“Continuing its well-established plan of co-operation, the Union offered its organization and equipment to assist ambitious young men in broadening their usefulness by bettering their education. The course offered a wide range of commercial, cultural, and industrial subjects.”

“NEW SUBJECTS. In the list of classes will be found a few new subjects,—Botany, Natural Science, Photography, Music and Harmony. The increased interest in Spanish made necessary the forming of a second elementary class.”

DEBATING CLUB.

"Dr. Gundersen's courses in Natural Science and Botany were justly popular, and should claim a permanent place in our evening classes."

"DEBATING CLUB. Under the leadership of Mr. Southworth, the Debating Club has been a great success. Several public debates with other teams have been held. On Lincoln's Birthday the class gave a public entertainment at which addresses appropriate to the day were made by Robert E. Alleyne and Stacy B. Southworth. Richard J. Hayden presided. On April 14 the club will bring the season's programme to a close with a banquet at the City Club."

"Mr. Tracy's Class in Music and Harmony was the only one of its kind offered by the evening schools in this city."

"The Free-hand Drawing Class was under the direction of Mr. G. Paterson Love, one of Boston's prominent figure artists. The class had one meeting open to the public at which practical talks were given by Mr. John J. Morgan, Publicity Agent of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, and Mr. Henry Hale, Jr., of the Ethridge Company, upon 'The Commercial Value of Art' and 'The Reproduction of Drawings.' Light refreshments were served."

"On April 9 will be held the joint exhibition of the Drawing and Sign Painting Classes and the Camera Club."

"The Elocution Class will bring its course to a close on April 14 with a complimentary entertainment to its friends."

"LAW. Special emphasis has been placed upon the teaching of the elements of Every-day Law, one evening especially being assigned to 'The Law of Every-day Business Transactions.' This and the opportunity afforded each member of the class for a free 'consultation' made the course very popular."

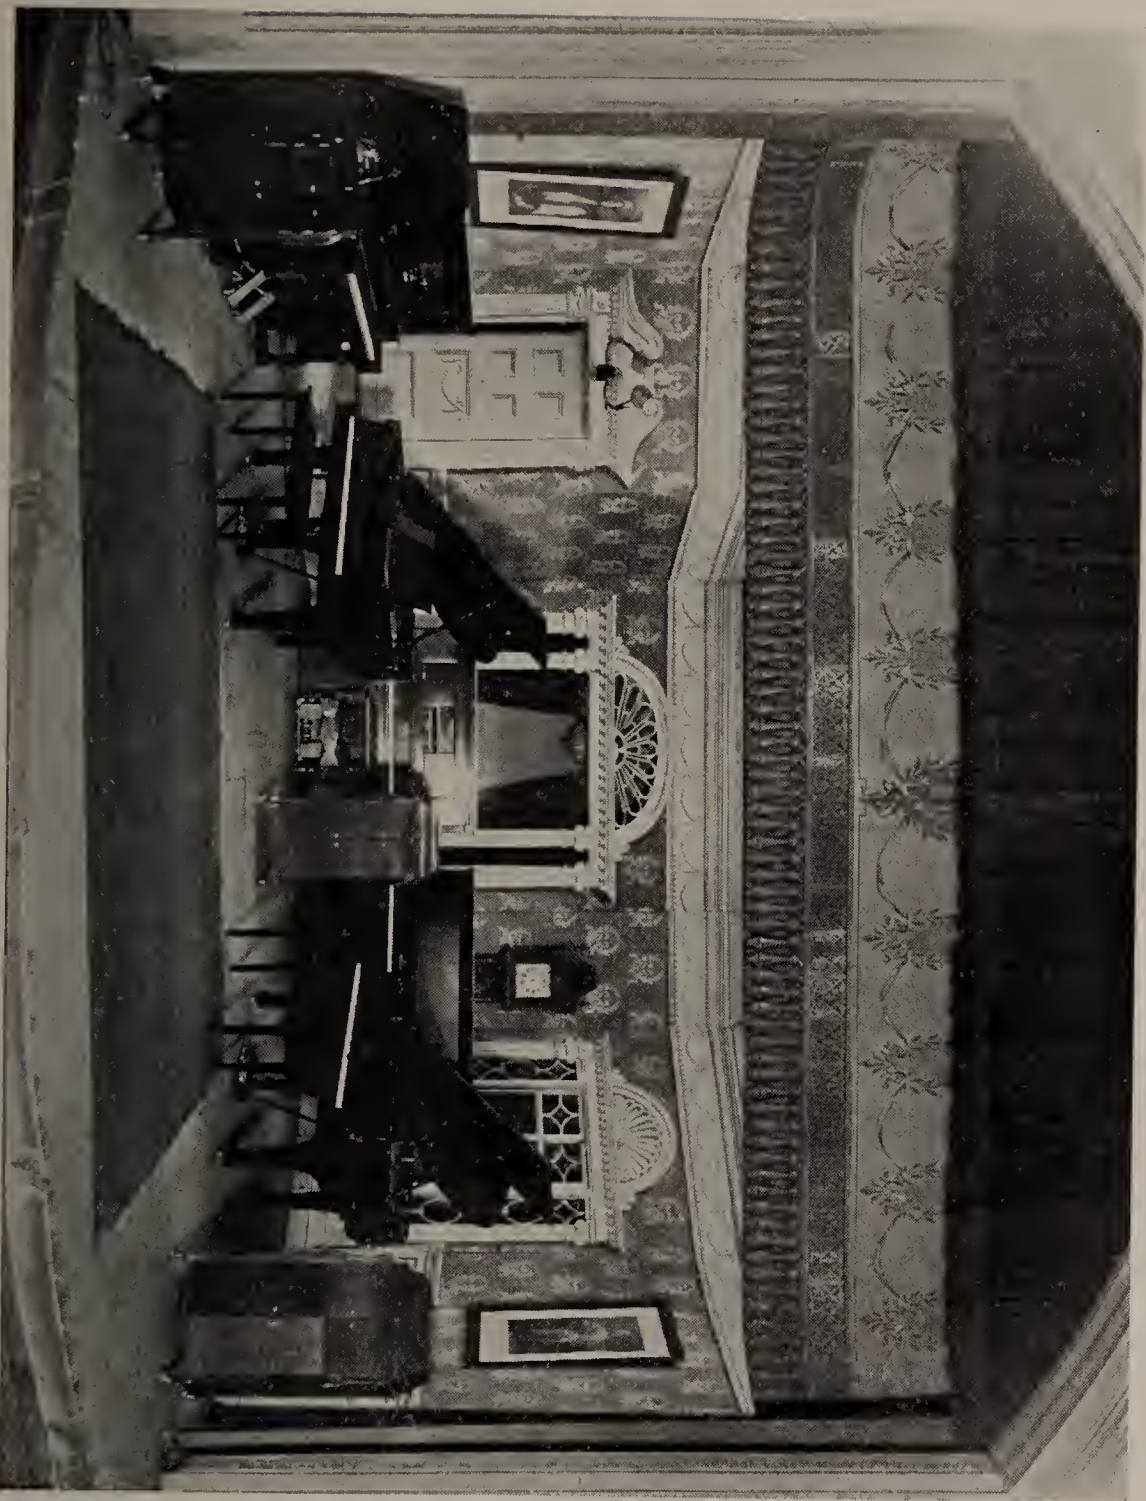

"Certificates were granted for satisfactory completion of the courses in Bookkeeping, Electricity, First Aid to the Injured, and Shorthand."

"SALESMANSHIP. The unique course in Business Methods and Salesmanship, conducted last year under the direction of Mr. Nathaniel C. Fowler, Jr., has been repeated this season with increased interest and, the Committee feels, with correspondingly valuable accomplishment."

"The plan of securing for teachers business men, both employers and employees, whose business methods and salesmanship are winning success in every-day work, is unquestionably fundamentally correct; and we feel sure that, with the improvement in programme which will result from the experience of the past two years, and the better understanding of the possibilities of such a course, a very successful future can be promised for this plan of instruction in a most important field."

"THE COMPLETE STAGE EQUIPMENT of The Union Hall made possible realistic presentations of office, salesroom, or store, and, supplemented by generous supplies, from participating firms, of special fittings and even of scenery specially painted to represent some particular store or salesroom, there were provided for these pictures of business-doing backgrounds complete in every detail."

"The formal registration in this class was 257: Salesmen, 116; Book-keepers and Clerks, 62; Employers, Managers, and Superintendents, 19; Students and Employed Boys, 16; Engineers, Electricians, and Mechanics, 22; Miscellaneous, 22. In several instances, employers have been interested to purchase tickets for groups of their employees. Provision was made for attendance at single sessions of those interested, but unable to attend the entire course.”

THE ATTENDANCE varied from 150 to over 300. The first meeting was given over to a series of short talks on the fundamental principles of business-doing and salesmanship by the following: Lieutenant-Governor Luce; Dr. David Snedden, State Commissioner of Education; Dr. Thomas Nixon Carver, Professor of Economics at Harvard University; Dr. William Orr,

State Deputy Commissioner of Education; Dr. Franklin B. Dyer, Superintendent of the Boston Public Schools; Hon. David A. Ellis, Chairman of the Boston School Committee; Frank V. Thompson, Assistant Superintendent of the Boston Public Schools; Nathaniel C. Fowler, Jr., the Director of the course; and Frank L. Locke, President of the Union.

At subsequent sessions realistic demonstrations of selling and business-doing were given by the B. F. Sturtevant Company, M. Steinert & Sons, the Jordan Marsh Company, the Macullar-Parker Company, the STAGE SETTING INTERIOR REGAL SHOE CO.

Boston Consolidated Gas Company, the Regal Shoe Company, and at the close of the course a most interesting and practical talk on the "Psychology of Business" by Dr. Hugo Münsterberg, Professor of Psychology and Director of the Psychological Laboratory at Harvard University.

MORE THAN 200 well-known business men and their associated employees appeared upon the stage, and after each demonstration gladly joined in a discussion of special points,—a feature which was of great value to the members of the class.

In the course every department of business was represented, from the selling of goods behind the counter to the handling and displaying of materials to the value of thousands of dollars.

The officers and members of the Union wish to record their heartiest appreciation of the service rendered by employers, salesmen, customers, and friends, who have contributed so generously to this novel educational programme.

DANCING CLASS. The popularity and success of last year's class in dancing and deportment led to the organization this year of classes, both for beginners and for advanced pupils. The fee for the course was, as last year, $4, $2 for each half-term, and, as before, special instruction in folk-dancing, as well as in deportment and social dancing, has been given. The Massachusetts Association of Women Workers' Clubs has co-operated in the supervision of invitations, and the following special committee has had general charge of the classes: Mrs. James J. Storrow, Miss Edith M. Howes, Mrs. George Clarke, Miss Harriot S. Curtis, Miss Grace R. Thurston, Mr. Horace Morison, and Professor O. L. Hebbert.

Miss Mabel G. Schellenger has again served as the regular teacher, and her skillful instruction has been supplemented by the chaperonage of Miss Thurston, who has been most faithful in attendance and in her personal interest in the members of the class.

A season's end party, with extra music, light refreshments, and later closing hour, was much enjoyed by members of the class and specially invited friends, and provided a fitting close for the season's programme.

ENTERTAINMENTS. Our efforts this season have been devoted to encouraging the members to take the initiative in planning and conducting entertainments, which they have done successfully and with much social enjoyment to themselves and their friends.

With the co-operation of the Entertainment Club, the Orchestral Club, and other groups of young men, entertainments and music have been provided for various occasions, Special Members' Nights, Election Night, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve, Orchestral Concert and Gymnastic Exhibition, Moving-pictures and Vaudeville, Debating Club contests, Bowling Tournaments, etc. The Orchestral Club, under the direction of Mr. Rudolph Nettle, has given Public Rehearsals every week in the Reception Room.

Names of the officers of the various clubs will be found in the Appendix.

LIBRARY.

LIBRARY.

THE LIBRARY SUPPLEMENTS SCHOOL and college education by providing books for reading and study covering a wide range of subjects.

The total number of volumes in the Library is 18,600; four hundred and eighteen having been added during the year. The circulation for home reading was 14,319, and the reading-room tables were supplied with forty-nine weeklies, fifty-seven monthlies, three semi-monthlies, and eight quarterlies. Twenty-two dailies also were regularly received and placed on standards for convenient access, and extra copies of "Century," "Harper's," "Scribner's," "Outing," "Atlantic," and "World's Work" were placed in circulation each month, for home reading.

For other statistics see Appendix.

AGAIN WE CALL ATTENTION to the fact that the central location of the building and its accessibility to the business portion of the city is an inducement to many young men to spend a portion of the noon hour in reading or in exchanging books for home use, and the past year during the hours between twelve and two o'clock the chairs were well occupied.

FREE ACCESS TO THE SHELVES has also proved its value in drawing attention to all classes of books, non-fiction as well as fiction, and many a book of history, biography, travel, or other practical subject, has been taken home that would not have attracted the attention of the borrower, had he depended upon the catalogue alone. No statistics can be given of the large number of books read in the rooms. This use of the Library has been very large, and the magazines and papers also attract many readers. This is especially noticeable on Sundays, when the Library is well filled throughout the day and evening. Week-day evenings also see a large attendance.

ADVERTISING AND PUBLICITY is just as important in a library as in a business house, and in many ways we have called attention to our resources. The personal suggestion; the lists of new books regularly published in "The Union Bulletin" and posted in the rooms; special groups of books on timely subjects, placed from time to time just inside the library door,—all these have assisted in bringing books and young men together.

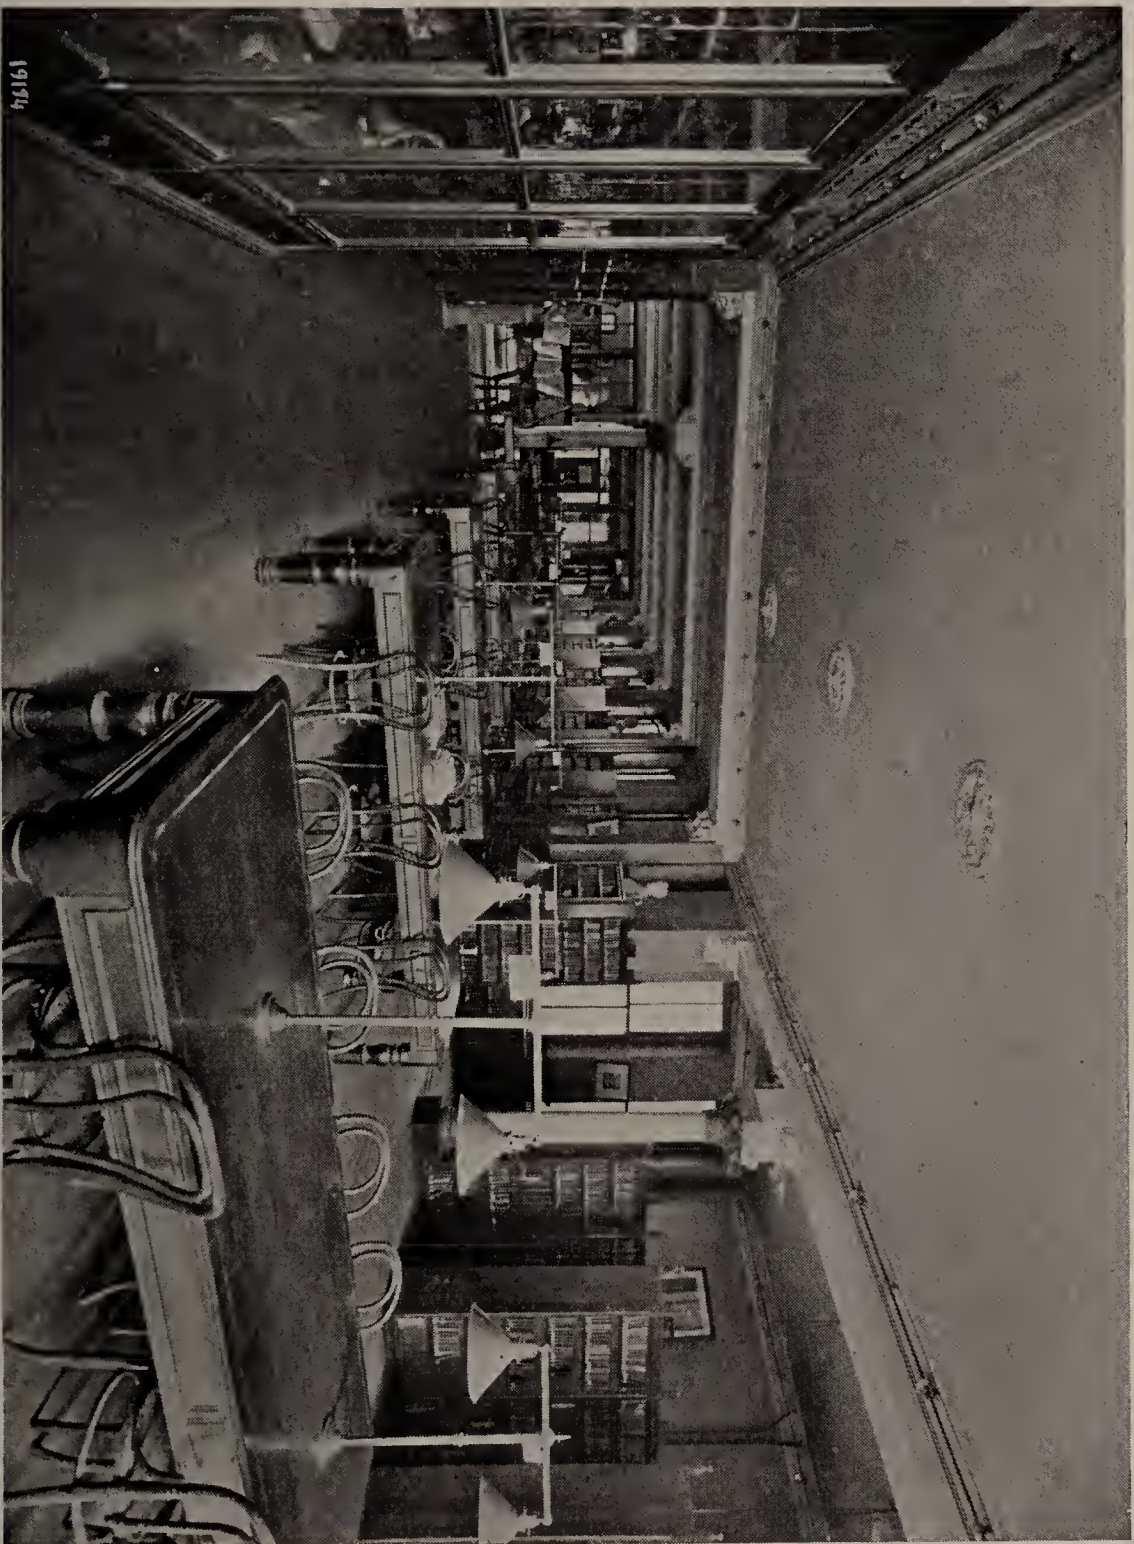

Some one has well said, "The Library is the great whispering-gallery of noble deeds, and, catching a whisper, the youth replies, 'I can,' and goes forth."

A prominent librarian of one of our large Western cities speaks of the "library as a path into fields of learning, into avenues of power that make all things possible." "Here," said he, "is the college of our self-educated men. Not all reading is for material profit: some of it is for happiness, and that happiness is perfect and most complete which we find for ourselves."

"Whether we look upon our library as a source of recreation, of happiness or profit—and it is all of these—," the army of young men now coming to our doors every year must be influenced and guided in the right direction.

"To open the door, through the book, for them is a work worth doing, not as a means of salvation, but as a means of sowing more efficiency and more happiness among men."

ROOMS.

THE LOCATION of our building, right at the busy corner of Tremont and Boylston Streets, within walking distance of railway stations and in direct connection with the various lines of street-car traffic, places the Union's activities truly at the young man's door, whether in his place of business or at his home or lodgings, even though they be in the remoter districts of Greater Boston.

Throughout this report will be found pictures, and, in the Appendix, floor plans, which will give to the reader, better than any word-picture which we can draw, an idea of the facilities which our building affords.

NO SPECIAL CHANGES have been made in the arrangement or the uses of the rooms during the year. Minor repairs and renovations have been made, as occasion required. Old style chairs in the Library have been replaced by comfortable Windsor chairs, and in the Reception Room the addition of new chairs and tables, with attractive reading-lamps, has supplied a cozy touch. Every attempt, consistent with simplicity and economy, has been made to give the rooms a cheerful home atmosphere.

We have again supplied rooms for the Continuation School branch of the Boston Public School Department, furnishing more extended accommodations than last year and providing for its Classes in Clothing, Dry Goods, Business Organization and Salesmanship, Department Store Salesmanship, Preparatory Salesmanship, Shoe and Leather, Retail Shoe Salesmanship, English for non-English Speaking People, three classes in Spanish and five in Italian, as well as headquarters for Principal of the School. This day-time use of classrooms, ordinarily occupied by us only in the evening, is a form of practical co-operation economical alike to the School Department and to the Union.

INCREASED USE OF ROOMS. The Committee is able to report a continued increase in the general use of the rooms. Particularly has there been an increased demand for accommodations for the smaller social gatherings, special meetings of little groups that have found through the Union a convenient means of carrying out some particular programme in which they are especially interested.

It has often been found difficult to provide satisfactory accommodations for the many activities,—a situation which is reported with some considerable satisfaction, indicating, as it does, the increased usefulness of the institution, and suggesting at the same time that very soon the present accommodations will be outgrown, and we shall find ourselves forced to take active measures for the reconstruction of our present building or the transfer to other quarters more commodious and more suitably designed for the carrying out of the Union's many lines of usefulness.

Mr. James H. Dalton, after twenty-four years of faithful service as bookkeeper, resigned in February to accept a position in the banking business, and Mr. A. F. Wood was promoted to fill the vacancy. Otherwise, no special changes have occurred in the staff of employees. Appreciation of Mr. Dalton's long service with the Union was suitably recorded by vote of the Board of Government.

AN EVENING IN THE RECEPTION ROOM.

MEMBERS.

WE AGAIN RECORD with pleasure the interest which the members of the Union take, not only in the Gymnasium and Library, but in the general social life of the organization. With the co-operation among the members which is apparent on every hand and the increase in number and extent of the various activities, there is reason to feel that soon the Union will outgrow in every way its building, and more extended and completely equipped quarters will be a necessity.

CLUBS. As we have often said, the numerous clubs formed within the Union have contributed in no small degree to this enlarged spirit of comradeship. These special groups and clubs are growing every year, and in them lies to a great extent the future of the Union; for the reason of their existence is co-operation, and co-operation is the soul of every organization.

The Committee on Members desires to thank the members of all committees and of all the various clubs and organizations within the Union for the work they have done in promoting its interests and in bringing the members together.

DEVOTION TO ONE ANOTHER. It has become apparent to those who have had the opportunity of watching the every-day life of the Union that during the past year there has developed among the members a more sincere friendship, a greater devotion to one another's interests, particularly in the matter of looking after those who are sick or ailing, and of helping one another by various little kindly acts. May such a spirit ever exist among us!

Our total membership on March 31, 1913, was 5,289.

1,572 new members have joined during the year and 1,715 have renewed membership. Seven new subscription members have been added, and one has paid his fourth subscription.

The present number of life members is 1,994.

A full list of life members will be found in the Appendix.

SOCIAL SERVICE.

OPPORTUNITY FINDS HERE A WIDE FIELD for its exercise. "Social Justice" is the demand of the age, and it is through "Social Service" that it will be secured. There are great things to be done in the industrial struggle which is going on about us, but in the mean while "the charities that soothe and heal and bless" continue their beneficent though less spectacular operations.

Among the Union's special enterprises in this connection are "The Country Week," "Rides for Invalids," and the "Christmas Festival," all being carried on under the wise direction of Miss Elise S. Johnson.

"THE COUNTRY WEEK" continues foremost on our list, and is now widely recognized as one of the leading "Fresh Air" organizations in the country, being much consulted and deferred to. Because of this fact, a "Council" was formed last spring, made up of delegates from the various associations in this city most interested in our work, its object being mutual advice and co-operation.

GOING FOR A RIDE. A "COUNTRY WEEK" PARTY.

During the season of 1912 twenty-one hundred and forty-nine persons, mostly children, enjoyed the privilege of a "Country Week," or rather a country fortnight, and many more were advised and assisted.

Number of children given vacations . . . . .	1,915
Number of adults given vacations . . . . .	234
Number advised and assisted . . . . .	936

Space is lacking here to speak further of this helpful and beautiful service, but many interesting details are given in an attractive special report, which may be had on application. A faithful and efficient committee generously co-operated in this work. The names of its members will be found in the Appendix.

"RIDES FOR INVALIDS" is another Union specialty, and has been of incalculable benefit to thousands of feeble folk during the many years of its social service. It operates in all seasons of the year and for "all sorts and conditions of men," women, and children, without distinction of race or creed.

Its record for the past year is as follows:—

Number of persons given carriage rides . . . . .	1,132
Number of steamer tickets distributed . . . . .	1,605
Number of car tickets distributed . . . . .	15,285

"THE CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR'S FESTIVAL" continues dear to the hearts of its managers and beneficiaries. Its fortieth celebration occurred on Saturday afternoon, December 28, and was attended by about six hundred and seventy children, all that the hall would hold, while many more were provided with a share in the Christmas gifts. The principal feature of the stage entertainment was the fairy play of "The Sleeping Beauty," charmingly presented by members of the Sewing Circle League, under the management of Miss Katryn Amory.

Between the acts Christmas carols and patriotic songs were sung with much enthusiasm by the children, assisted by the orchestra, which did excellent work during the afternoon. After the play, ice-cream and cake were served, and were received with vociferous and voracious appreciation. Then the Christmas tree was revealed, and Vice-President Baldwin played Santa Claus to it in the most approved and acceptable fashion. This closed the festivities in the hall, but they must have been continued at home, when the children examined the boxes of presents, carefully selected for each individual, which they carried away with them.

This social service was made possible through the work of many men and women, who seemed to find real pleasure in it and whose names are given in the Appendix.

LOOKING FOR A JOB.

THE EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT is one of the most important features of our work, and is every day proving its direct usefulness. It brings the employer in contact with those seeking employment with as little machinery as possible and with no expense to either. Mr. Herbert C. Bronsdon, who has made a special study of this department, continues his excellent management of it, and his report follows:—

“THE PROBLEM OF THE BOY seeking employment is primarily to find a job, but the Union in helping him to find the job also strives through its vocational service to place him in a position for which by natural inclination and training he is best fitted.”

ADVISORY BOARD. “In this work we are fortunate in having the aid of an Advisory Board of practical business men, with whom appointments for conference may be arranged, as well as the co-operation of the Vocation Bureau and the recently organized Employment Managers’ Association. It is the Department’s constant endeavor also to keep closely in step with the efforts of the vocational department of the city schools, of various employment agencies, and other organizations, all of which are co-operating in the study of this problem and in the endeavor to enlist in its solution parents, teachers, and employers.”

WILLINGNESS TO WORK. “While realizing the importance of a proper selection, emphasis on this point is not permitted to turn the attention from what seems to us a principle of the utmost importance in this problem of employment, namely, that, by determined application and willingness to work, reasonable success may be attained in whatever line the young man may choose or may find himself forced to begin, and that attention to these important points will ultimately lead him to that particular vocation for which he is best fitted.”

“During the year 698 applications for employment have been received from men and boys whose ages have ranged from 11 to 68, divided as follows:—

11-16	17-20	21-25	26-30	31-40	41-50	53-68
161	225	106	96	76	24	10

459 were sent to places in response to 538 applications from employers, and 193 were employed.”

Mr. Bronsdon has also been able to relieve many cases of need by the distribution of clothing. He has visited the sick, and in other ways helped the Management of the Union in its efforts to keep in kindly personal touch with those especially needing such attentions.

THE BOARD AND LODGING LIST was of practical use to many young men and others in locating suitable living quarters in the city and suburbs. A list of vacation places in the country and at the seashore was also prepared and much consulted during the summer months.

In submitting this report, the Committee would again express its grateful appreciation for the generous financial support and cordial interest of the friends without whose aid these social services would be impossible. We have spent a good deal of money, but it has been well spent, and we are not afraid to ask for more.

A GAME OF CHECKERS.

PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.

While the Committee is unable to point to definite and carefully organized programmes of religious study or the conduct of regular meetings for religious worship, it does feel confident that it can record for the year's work marked success in its effort to introduce into the whole programme of the Union's activities a definite and vital religious background or foundation. It is the endeavor to instill into the mind of every young man the importance and positive value of living a Christian life,—a life that will stand the test of real Christian doing and acting rather than one in which the Christianity and religion are limited to participation in formal service, with less attention to the right and wrong of daily living.

SUNDAY AFTERNOONS "AT HOME." Following the custom established last year, President and Mrs. Locke have held a series of very informal afternoon receptions for members and their young men and young women friends on the third Sunday of the month throughout the winter season. At each reception one of the members of the Board of Government and his wife have been especially in charge of the tea-table and social features of the afternoon. On each occasion some one of the Union's clubs or special classes has been invited to provide a corps of ushers, or special reception committee, to assist in introductions and general sociability. Prominent clergymen, educators, social workers, and friends interested in the Union work have been invited each afternoon, and have been glad of this opportunity to meet and know better our members and to talk with them and counsel them in connection with their hopes and ambitions.

CO-OPERATION WITH CHURCHES. The meetings have afforded a means of more direct co-operation with the various churches and church work, and each month the members of some church young men's club or particular group have been invited as special guests. These occasions furnish both the opportunity for contribution by the church, through its clubs or committees, to the work of the Union and also the possibility of a natural introduction of some of the Union members through acquaintances thus formed into more definite church connection.

Programmes have been arranged for each meeting by the Union Orchestral Club, Mr. Rudolph Nettle Director, and have added to the pleasure of the gatherings.

The Committee has the co-operation of many of the churches in its endeavor to interest young men in regular church attendance, and would very much appreciate any further assistance that may be offered in this direction. The importance of a connection with some church is urged, and aid is given in obtaining seats in the particular churches which members desire to attend.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The Committee on Physical Culture takes great pleasure and excusable pride in submitting its report for the past year, for not only has the regular work of the department been maintained at its high level and the membership materially increased, but the New Wing of the Gymnasium has afforded a much-needed opportunity to enlarge our work in this field.

UPLIFTING AND UPBUILDING. The Gymnasium has long been regarded as an invaluable adjunct of all institutions engaged in the uplifting and upbuilding of young men, and especially is this true at the present day, when modern ideas and scientific methods prevail in the field of physical culture.

The wide-spread interest in and enthusiasm for physical training and sports of all kinds is one of the most gratifying and encouraging signs of the times; and the Union Gymnasium, the largest and most completely equipped in Boston, is more than ever a centre of great athletic interest.

GYMNASIUM MEMBERSHIP,

March 31, 1913, 1,146.

PERSONNEL. The Gymnasium has been in immediate charge of Mr. Oliver L. Hebbert, Director, and Mr. Ross E. Browning, Assistant, and the increasing interest and enthusiasm of our members in general athletic and class work is ample proof of the efficiency of these instructors.

A total attendance of 20,025 in all departments of the Gymnasium for the month of March, an average daily attendance of 399 with a maximum of 507 in the Gymnasium proper, and a record for one day of 479 in the Bowling Alleys indicate the popularity of the department and the extent of its accomplishment.

THE "GYM" CLASSES. The regular class drills are especially popular, those of the evening often taxing the main floor of the Gymnasium to its full capacity. The class work includes calisthenics, dumb bell, gymnastic dancing, Indian club, wand, high bars, parallel bars, horizontal bar, German horse, Swedish box, vaulting, tumbling, inclined and horizontal ladders, boxing and wrestling.

Gymnastic dancing is now included in all the classes. It is a pleasing and healthful deviation from routine work, and our members are finding it a graceful, fascinating, and exhilarating exercise.

Music for the class work has been in charge of Miss S. M. Gash, Pianist, whose proficiency in the special requirements of this position has contributed in no small measure to the attractiveness of these drills.

BOYS. The Class for Boys on Saturday mornings, in charge of Mr. Hebbert, affords a safe form of recreation and exercise, which parents of growing boys much appreciate.

CIVIL SERVICE. A special class for Civil Service candidates, in charge of Mr. J. J. Smith, every Tuesday and Thursday, provided instruction and training to meet the requirements of the physical examinations and strength tests of the Boston Police and Fire Departments. This year's class numbered 70, and the largest attendance at one time was 31. Ninety per cent of the candidates passed examinations and received appointments. In the examinations, men from our class took first place at Brookline, Chelsea, Medford, Cambridge, and second place at Newton and Cambridge.

BOXING AND WRESTLING. Special rooms are provided for boxing, wrestling, the striking-bags, and the heavy dumb bells. The Wrestling Club, which meets on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from October to May, while having as its main objects the promotion of wrestling and the opportunity for practice of beginners with the more skilled, is not without value as a social organization. Of special value is the instruction received from Mr. Henry V. Rawlings and Mr. Edgar O. Parker. The Club has been very successful this season in team matches with outside clubs, including the Municipal Gymnasiums, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Harvard University.

BOWLING ALLEYS AND BILLIARDS. The four bowling alleys and four combination pool tables have been in constant use, and lack of space alone prevents an addition to this equipment. Bowling tournaments were arranged with teams from the Y. M. C. A., Wells Memorial Institute, and Lincoln House.

GYMNASTIC EXHIBITIONS were given in our own building, at the Municipal Athletic Associations' Meet in the South Armory, and in suburban towns, in all of which our members showed the fine results of their careful training.

A new feature of the Union athletic work is the opportunity extended to outside organizations to use the Gymnasium at stated times.

MEDICAL AND PHYSICAL EXAMINATION. Attention is called to the physical examination to which all members of the Gymnasium are entitled and which all are urged to take. The advice and direction of the Examining Physician, and of the Physical Director who has charge of the measurements, are found to be of special value in correcting physical defects and in developing for special requirements. Re-examination from time to time is of value and interest in showing progress as the result of faithful exercise.

THE UNION CAMPING CLUB has just passed its third successful season. The Club looks forward to a prosperous summer. During the past year a series of parties was enjoyed by members and friends and the Third Annual Dance on March 28 was very successful.

CAMP HUBBARD, the Club's headquarters, is situated on the Charles River about a mile above Riverside, and the members enjoy the privileges of the nearby Riverside Recreation Grounds. Members may hire canoes at a discount, and use of the swimming pool, bowling alleys, pool-room, tennis court, etc., may also be secured at reduced rates.

"ALL ROUND" EXERCISE.

During the winter over two-thirds of the members spent week-ends at the camp, enjoying winter sports. The breaking of the ice for a morning wash and the friendly discussion as to who should wash dishes added to the good times.

MASSAGE. A special addition has been made to the Massage Department in the association with us of Mr. Victor Nyquist, graduate of Jonkoping, Sweden, formerly with the Lundin Turkish baths. Under his expert direction all members of the Union may enjoy massage, electric baths and vibration, special vapor baths, medical gymnastics and chiropody.

Mr. Edwin F. Harding is still associated with the Union, and his services may be secured by special appointment.

STONE & WEBSTER MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION
147 MILK STREET, BOSTON

BOSTON, MASS., April 25, 1913.

BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION,
48 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass.:

We have completed an audit of the accounts of the Boston Young Men's Christian Union for the year ended March 31, 1913, our examination covering both the transactions of Mr. Edward A. Church, Treasurer, and those relating to the handling of the funds in the hands of the Board of Trustees, these latter accounts being in charge of Mr. Walter Hunnewell.

The cash on hand was confirmed by comparison with the records of the Boylston National Bank, and all securities in the possession of the Trustees were compared with a list drawn from the books and found to be in agreement. The income and expenses, as summarized in the statement included herein, are in agreement with a more detailed statement included in our printed report to you, which we have signed as being correct. All expenditures were properly supported by approved vouchers and receipts.

Yours very truly,

STONE & WEBSTER MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION.

HISTORY.

The Boston Young Men's Christian Union was instituted in 1851, and incorporated under its present name in 1852. Its work was temporarily interrupted by the Civil War, but in April, 1868, a complete reorganization was effected. Rooms were secured at 12 West Street, and 1868. active work resumed. The rooms soon proved too small for the purposes of the Society, and larger ones were taken in the fall at what was then 300 Washington Street, corner of Suffolk Place, where the whole building above the first floor was eventually occupied. These premises also proving inadequate, it became necessary to move again. In the spring of 1874, a suitable lot of land having been found, a public appeal was made for funds with which to purchase the land and erect a new building. By the generosity of friends the necessary amount with which to begin the work was speedily secured.

The present building was completed and dedicated March 15, 1876. By the munificent legacy of eighty 1876. thousand dollars from the late Joseph B. Eaton, a Life Member, supplemented by other generous gifts, the Society was enabled in 1879 (December 10) to hold its building free from all indebtedness. In 1882, on account of constantly growing needs, enlargement of the building was deemed necessary.
1883. Numerous friends promptly responded to an appeal; and an addition to the building was completed, and dedicated May 28, 1883.

A two-story addition to the building, extending through to LaGrange Street, providing bath-
1912. rooms, locker-room, hand-ball court, bowling-alleys, and game-room, was opened February 6, 1912.

CONSTITUTION
BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN
UNION.

---

ARTICLE I.

Title.

THIS Society shall be called the "BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION."

ARTICLE II.

Eligibility of Members.

All young men of good moral character, and claiming to believe in the truths of Christianity, without distinction of sect or party, shall be eligible as members of this Society; but no person shall vote at any meeting of the Society who has not been a member for the period of one year, at least, previous to such meeting.

ARTICLE III.

Admission of Members.

Members may be admitted in such manner and on such conditions as the Board of Government may prescribe.

ARTICLE IV.

Annual, Subscription, Sustaining, and Life Members.

All persons qualified as before named, who shall be admitted in the manner herein provided, shall, upon the payment of one dollar annually, become and continue MEMBERS of this Society; upon the payment of five dollars annually, shall become and continue SUBSCRIPTION MEMBERS; upon the payment of ten dollars annually, shall become and continue SUSTAINING MEMBERS; and all subscription members who shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars in five or less annual installments shall become LIFE MEMBERS of the Society.

ARTICLE V.

Officers.

The officers of the Society shall consist of a Board of twelve Directors, who shall be elected by ballot from members of the Society, and shall constitute the Board of Government. Four directors shall be elected each year, each to serve three years.

On or before February 15 of each year the President shall appoint a committee of three to make nominations for vacancies to be filled at the regular annual meeting. The committee shall report its nominations to the Secretary on or before March 1. Other nominations may be made by filing nomination papers, placed in the hands of the Secretary on or before April 1, signed by not less than 150 members entitled to vote at the previous annual meeting.

The Secretary shall post in a conspicuous place in the Union Rooms, immediately upon receipt by him, the list of names of the candidates presented by the nominating committee, and the names of other candidates properly presented, and shall provide suitable ballots containing the names of all candidates. Only those placed in nomination as herein provided shall be eligible for election.

Immediately after the annual meeting in each year the Board of Directors shall meet and organize, and shall choose from their number a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Society, for the ensuing year. All the above officers so elected shall serve for the terms respectively named, and until their respective successors are elected.

Vacancies occurring from any cause in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the Board of Government, and any director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting and the election of his successor.

Vacancies occurring in the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall be filled for the remainder of their terms by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Government shall have power to appoint, subject to their direction, such other officers and committees from among the members as they may deem expedient.

ARTICLE VI.

Duties of the Board of Directors.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors,—

First, To provide for the use of the Society suitable rooms, centrally located in the city of Boston.

Second, To provide and keep in said rooms such books, periodicals, and newspapers as will, in their judgment, promote the object of the Society.

Third, To make such arrangements for social religious exercises as they shall deem practicable and conducive to the best interests of the Society.

Fourth, To induce the members of the Society to connect themselves with some of the religious societies in the vicinity, according always to their denominational preferences, and especially to seek out and impart information, and render aid, assistance, and encouragement to those who come as strangers to the city, striving to guard them against temptation, to surround them with Christian influences, and to interest them in the cultivation of a religious life.

ARTICLE VII.

Meetings.

The annual meeting of the Society for the choice of officers shall be held on the second Wednesday in April. The Board of Directors may call other meetings of the Society from time to time; and they shall call such meetings whenever requested so to do by the written application of any seventeen members, stating the purposes for which such meeting is to be held; said meetings to be called in such manner as the said Board may deem expedient, having previously given reasonable notice thereof. Seventeen members shall constitute a quorum of the Society for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VIII.

Permanent Fund.

The Board of Directors may transfer such of the funds of the Society as they may think best to a Permanent Fund, may appoint five trustees to control such fund, and shall at the time of such appointment determine the character of the trust by an instrument in writing. Vacancies occurring at any time hereafter in the number of said trustees shall be filled by the remaining members, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors for the time being.

ARTICLE IX.

Amendments.

These articles may be added to, altered, or amended at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for the purpose, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, provided that such additions, alterations, or amendments, shall have been proposed in writing at one meeting, at least, prior to that at which they are to be acted upon.

BY-LAWS
OF THE
BOARD OF GOVERNMENT.

---

ARTICLE I.

Meetings.

REGULAR meetings of the Board of Government shall be held on the first Tuesday of each month. Special meetings may be called at any time, by order of the President, Secretary, or any two Directors. The Secretary shall notify members of the time and place of such meetings.

ARTICLE II.

Standing Committees.

At the first meeting of the Board in each year, eight standing committees shall be appointed by the President, who shall be under the authority and subject to the direction of the whole Board; and the reports of the various committees shall be first in order at each regular meeting of the Board. The committees may appoint, subject to the approval and ratification of the Board, such sub-committees from among the members of the Society as they shall deem fit, provided; however, that each sub-committee shall be subject in its action to the committee of the Board to which it is subordinate. The eight committees shall be constituted as follows:—

I. COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.—They shall have charge of the financial affairs of the Society, and shall, with the Treasurer, devise ways and means for procuring funds, obtaining donations and assessments, investing the same, and superintending all disbursements. They shall audit the report of the Treasurer before it is submitted to the Union at the annual meetings.

2. COMMITTEE ON LECTURES, CLASSES, AND ENTERTAINMENTS.—They may provide for courses of lectures or single lectures; shall organize and have supervision of all clubs and classes formed for instruction or discussion, except classes for religious study and discussion; and shall have general supervision of all entertainments both public and private.

3. COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY.—They shall have the general charge of all matters connected with this department. They shall purchase such books for the Library and Study, and obtain such newspapers and other periodicals as they deem expedient.

4. COMMITTEE ON ROOMS.—They shall have the general charge of the rooms, and shall take especial pains to introduce strangers visiting the city.

5. COMMITTEE ON MEMBERS.—They shall organize means for increasing the membership of the Society, and shall have the general supervision of the admission of new members.

6. COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE.—They shall organize means for providing strangers, and others in want, with employment, with good boarding-houses, with seats in churches, and shall have the general supervision of all works of benevolence and reform undertaken by the Union.

7. COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.—They shall have charge of all measures for public religious worship undertaken by the Union, either within or outside of the rooms of the Society, and shall have the supervision of all classes formed for religious study and discussion.

8. COMMITTEE ON PHYSICAL CULTURE.—They shall have the general charge of the gymnasium and athletic sports, and other measures for promoting the health of the members.

ARTICLE III.

Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall present to the Board a Monthly Report showing the condition of the finances. No money shall be paid by him except by the authority of the Board, or approval in writing of some member of the committee under whose direction the expenditures were incurred.

ARTICLE IV.

Annual Report.

The Board shall present, at the annual meeting of the Society, a detailed statement of the condition of the institution and of its operations during the preceding year.

ARTICLE V.

Reports of Committees.

It shall be the duty of all committees to keep a detailed account of their proceedings, and at the end of the year to place the same, with the reports of their sub-committees, in the hands of the Secretary of the Society.

ARTICLE VI.

Amendments to By-laws.

The foregoing By-laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board, providing two-thirds of the members present assent thereto; but no alteration, addition, or amendment shall be adopted at the same meeting at which it is proposed.

The President, Secretary, and Treasurer, ex officio, shall have the supervision of all printing and advertising.
